VOL. XXIX.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 1901. 9 A. M.

NO. 6

MT. VERNON.

Granville Owens, living on Brush Creek, lost three fingers in a shingle mill.

Mack Estes died Tuesday night after an illness of some weeks. He was a carpenter and cabinet workman of ability. His health had been bad for many years.

We are informed that the L. & N. has taken the contract to build the Brush Creek extension of 10 miles to Jackson county line. Engineers are now at work making locating surveys.

Chris Sowder, who had one hand badly crushed in a cane mill many years ago, had that member amputated Wednesday by the doctors on account of a cancerous growth having set up some months since.

Jones & Smith, a Livingston mercantile firm, has been placed in involuntary bankruptcy by creditors. We are told by reliable parties that the liabilities are placed at $16,000, and assets run from $5,000 to $6,000.

Pittsburg, Pa., sent five Jones brothers to Brush Creek, this county, to investigate the mineral resources of that portion of Rockcastle county. Their resemblance is remarkable. Diamond drills and other contrivances are being used by them to ascertain if the coal beds will justify them in putting in extensive plants.

S. C. Franklin has returned from Athens accompanied by his father and mother, who will make their home with him in the future. Mr. Franklin certainly fulfills that commandment relative to parents. Mr. Jack Adams, of Paint Lick, was a visitor to our town this week. W. C. Champand wife, of Paint Lick, were here this week visiting parents and friends. W. T. Short, deputy U. S. marshal, is taking invoice of Jones & Smith's stock at Livingston. Judge Williams and Editor Albright were in Louisville this week. Mrs. D. N. Williams is improving. Your correspondent has a bad case of inflammation of the eyes, or something which shows four lines where only one is written. We return thanks for the fact that we are enabled, after untold suffering for days, to see a little. Henry V. Bastin, student at K. S. C., Lexington, is at home in Lancaster for a few days. Mr. Bastin is a close student and is away up in his studies, especially in the electrical line.

From An Appreciative Subscriber.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., March 12.—We certainly appreciate your kindness in sending us the dear old INTERIOR JOURNAL. We impatiently await its arrival. It does not reach us for two days after it is printed. Sorry to say there has been only one Crab Orchard letter. We have prolonged our visit one more week in order to enjoy more of the Crescent City. We visited the mint, where the government turns out $60,000 per day. Sunday we visited Chalmette, where the battle of New Orleans was fought and won by our beloved Jackson. Also visited the cathedral where prayers were held for him on that memorial day. Sarah Bernhardt is the drawing card this week. We will hear her Saturday night. She is not the only attraction though for the races seem to have a greater magnetic power for the male sex. I must confess I belong to the latter attraction. R. H. Bronaugh's Juliette now owned by T. H. Stevens, won first money a few days ago. The weather has been cold for three days and it frosted last night for the first time since we came down. I will be at home in time to cast my vote in the primary. We thought we had seen a great deal of the city until we went up in the tower of a large building, 11 stories high. Then to our surprise we found we had only visited the most important parts. I hope everything is moving along nicely in dear old Kentucky. Keep political affairs straight for I know you will give things a hot roast if they do not go right as you are not afraid to speak when duty demands you.

CURTIS GOVER.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well-known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug."—Sold by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

DR. CLIFTON FOWLER.

THE hottest fight among democrats of this county in years is almost at an end and late tomorrow afternoon we will know who will represent us in the next Legislature as well as who will fill the various county offices for the next four years beginning January 1st. Some of the gentlemen to be voted for in tomorrow's primary have been candidates for several years and in that long time have shaken the hand of probably every voter in Lincoln county. These gentlemen have spent considerable time and no doubt some money in attempting to realize their fond hopes and it is but natural that they will be disappointed if they fail to reach the goal. They are all democrats though and will soon forget about what it "might have been" and with determined hearts will at once begin to help elect their more successful competitors. The candidates and their friends have behaved themselves exceedingly well so far and we sincerely trust that the few remaining hours of the campaign will bring about nothing that will cause a change of the good feeling now existing and that a love feast rather than dissension and turmoil will be the result of tomorrow's primary. Let every democrat go to the polls and help in the making of a ticket that will so disconcert the republicans that they will abandon hope of defeating it and will not have the gall to attempt to do so. Lincoln county is democratic, democrats pay more than three-fourths of the taxes and it is but right and just that democrats should manage the affairs of the county. Name a good ticket and they will certainly do so.

WE thank the Louisville Times for calling attention to an error in the last issue of this paper, with reference to the appointment of St. Louis Fair commissioners. We wrote Carter as plainly as is possible for us, but the intelligent compositor made it Carlisle and placed us in the position of printing a misstatement of facts both as to the appointment and the character of the appointee. Carlisle may have gotten out of line with the democratic party, but he is not so far lost to common decency as to accept favors from a republican president.

GEN. HARRISON's last days were darkened by the action of his children towards him after his second marriage and his treatment by President McKinley, who sought to humiliate him through his son, Russell. He leaves a young wife who was his first wife's niece and by whom he had a daughter, who was as the child of his old age, the joy of his life.

THE salary of Charles M. Schwab, president of the steel trust, has been increased from $800,000 to $1,000,000 per year, and a contract made with him for five years at the latter figure. Mr. Schwab is one of those who readily agree with Senator Scott that trusts are "good things."

TWENTY-FIVE Clay county boys passed through London on their way to join the standing army. If among the number there are some of those who have helped to make Clay county's reputation what it is, their departure will occasion little or no regret.

ELI H. BROWN was nominated for representative by Nelson county democrats.

THE sudden termination of ex-President Harrison's short illness in death, came like a shock to the country, which was not prepared to realize that the man of stalwart form and colossal brain had joined the innumerable caravan which moves to the mysterious realm. A great man has fallen and the whole country, regardless of party lines, mourns the death of a scholar and a statesman, who served the people as their chief magistrate with singular ability and fidelity. Though an ardent republican he was not always in touch with the party leaders, above whom he soared as an eagle. Since retiring from the presidency, he has conducted himself with great propriety, shrinking from public notice, but always willing to give his advice and counsel when called upon. Like Lincoln's his fame has grown all the time and will continue to do so, while history will give him place among the greatest statesmen of his day, and those who taunted him with reference to his inability to wear his grandfather's hat will unite in agreeing that he was a greater man, even than Gen. William Henry Harrison, with whom he was so invidiously compared. As a soldier in the civil war, in which he rose from colonel to general, as U. S. Senator and as president he met all the requirements of manhood and leaves a name that will live forever in the annals of American statesmanship.

EVERYBODY, who knew clever and big hearted Pat McDonald, for many years editor of the Western Argus and a noted Frankfort politician, will regret to hear of his death which occurred yesterday. He was a good man and a peerless democrat.

WE still have our money on Bradley for U. S. judge. He is dead sure of the appointment, which ought to have been his without question or opposition.

Walton For R. R. Commissioner.

The State press is making highly complimentary notice of W. P. Walton's candidacy for railroad commissioner, which he and the writer fully appreciate. Following is a fair sample:

Mr. William P. Walton, of Stanford, formerly editor of The Morning Democrat, and one of the leading democrats of the State, is a candidate for railroad commissioner from this district. He is a candidate to succeed Charles C. McChord, of Washington county, the present incumbent, who, it is understood, will be a candidate for governor at the next election. Mr. Walton is one of the best democrats in Kentucky and his loyalty to his party has won for him the admiration of all men. For years he fought the battles of democracy in the Stanford Interior Journal, and later on he directed the footsteps of The Morning Democrat in the right path. He is a successful editor, publisher and business man and is particularly well fitted for the position which his friends have urged him to stand for. William P. Walton is all energy in his every task and he will make a vigorous campaign. His nomination and election would be a matter of congratulation for the district.—Lexington Democrat.

Mr. Walton has done more sledgehammer work for his party than any newspaper man in this section, and if his desire is not granted, the party will show itself ungrateful, indeed.—Lancaster Record.

If loyalty and devotion to his party count for anything, it looks as if W. P. Walton should win hands down the railroad commissionership.—Advocate.

POLITICAL.

Gov. Durbin says that two years hence he will sign a bill to pay the Southern Indiana home guards who opposed Morgan.

Ex-Congressman W. E. Fuller, of Iowa, offered the post of Assistant Attorney General of the United States, has declined the job.

The republican Senatorial Convention at Madisonville nominated John Feland, Jr., and the one at Burkesville named John W. Catron.

State Senator N. W. Udey, of Eddyville, has announced that he will be a candidate for Congress in the First district to succeed Representative Wheeler.

That Government appropriation of $5,000,000 to the St. Louis Exposition seems to have been made chiefly for the purpose of providing nine $5,000 salaries for that number of "statesmen out of a job."—Louisville Times.

The Nebraska Senate has passed a bill to prohibit fusion of political parties in that State. It probably will pass the House and become a law. Opponents of the measure denounce it as a scheme to keep the republicans in power.

Benjamin Harrison was defeated in his race for Governor of Indiana in 1876 but he later on wiped out that little demerit mark—if it be a demerit in the light, or shadow, which the late Gov. Mount and the present Gov. Durbin have cast upon that office.—Lou. Times.

A civil service examination will be held at Danville April 25th to fill the position of typewriter clerk, qualified as stenographer and typewriter; general land office services, elevator conductor and press feeder; promotion to clerk, railway mail clerk, skilled laborer, stenographer, and typewriter. There are several candidates for the examination for the revenue service, which will be held next fall.

Fernander May, for several years city editor of the Owensboro Messenger, will go to Pine Bluff, Ark., to accept a position on the Graphic. He is succeeded by Preston McGoodwin, of Princeton, Ky.

For want of logs, the large lumber mills at Valley View and Ford have been compelled to shut down, throwing a large number of men out of employment. Old rivermen say the past February has been the driest for years.

The banks of Maysville have deposits amounting to about a million and a half dollars, while the assessor's report shows only $23,000 of money on deposit. Auditor's agent for that county has employed an attorney and will institute a vigorous campaign against the tax dodgers.

Cloverport suffered the most disastrous fire in its history Wednesday night. Six blocks of buildings on both sides of Wall street, in the business portion of the town, were laid in ashes. Only one store was left standing and several residences were burned, rendering a number of people homeless. Both hotels, two churches, the Cloverport News plant, two tobacco stemmeries, the postoffice and 10 or 15 stores were destroyed, causing a loss of over $500,000.

DON'T fail to participate in the primary tomorrow if there is a spark of democracy left in you. Pay no attention to the republicans who are trying to keep you from going into the primary, for it is their game to get democrats to go unpledged in order that they may work on them for the final election. Remember the polls open at 6 o'clock and close at 4 and don't fail to vote.

FIRE.—Mr. A. G. Eastland's roof caught fire from a spark from the chimney yesterday morning and the blaze was under considerable headway when discovered. Assisted by his daughters, Mr. E. formed a voluntary fire company and put out the fire without the aid of the fire ladders.

FROST wont hurt your beans if you will observe the following suggestion of George W. Edwards, of the East End, the boss bean raiser: Stick a peg at each end of the row and stretch from one end to the other five or six yard strings over the tops of the beans and the yarn will absorb the frost.

HOME AT AUCTION.—As I am going to leave Danville I will on Thursday, March, 21st, at 10 A. M. sell at auction my home in that city. Persons in search of a good house at moderate price and on easy terms should not miss this chance. Go see the house before day of sale. H. Giovannoli, Danville, Ky.

THE names of the candidates to be voted for to-morrow will be found at the top of the first column on our editorial page. Look over the list carefully and vote for the gentleman you think can poll the best vote in November next. Let aside personal feeling for the nounce and have only the interest of the party at heart.

ACCIDENT.—As Mr. J. R. Alford was coming down stairs at Mrs. George D. Wearen's yesterday morning, his head began to swim and he fell. He was picked up by the homefolks when it was found that his nose was badly cut and that he was otherwise bruised and hurt about the face. As Mr. Alford is very old his friends fear that he can not survive the shock.

DO IT THIS WAY.—The following will give a good idea as to how to vote in tomorrow's primary. Stamp your X in the square to the right of the name of the person you wish to vote for. Mr. Bryan isn't running this time, but if he were, this is the way his name would appear on the ballot:

Wm. J. Bryan, - - ☒

WAS HIS SCHOOLMATE.—Mr. J. C. McKee, the Kingsville fruit man, tells us that he attended school in Ohio for two years with Ex-President Ben Harrison. He says the ex-president when a boy was a fine student and a smart fellow, but that he was very unpopular because of a too bountiful share of dignity. Mr. McKee has great respect for Mr. Harrison, and while differing with him politically, has watched his course in life with much interest.

HURT.—P. H. Taylor, candidate for the republican nomination for county attorney of Casey, was badly hurt about his back and right leg by being thrown with much force from his horse while canvassing on Rolling Fork. His horse slipped up with him. Dr. Murphy was at once called and has had him in his care since the accident. The doctor permitted him to ride in a buggy to his home, but thinks he will be unable to make any further canvass before the primary election, which will be held March 30th.

GENTRY.—James B. Gentry, one of Stanford's most popular young men, died at Thomasville, Ga., Wednesday night, aged 40. He went to that place early in November last, with the hope of regaining his health, but his vitals had been gnawed on by the dread disease so long that the change of climate had very little effect on him. Nearly 10 years ago Mr. Gentry's lungs began to trouble him but not until the last two or three years did he think they were very much diseased and it was then that he and his sister, Mrs. Eliza Blain, who was with him when he died, went to New Mexico and remained for months. He was not much benefited there. Mr. Gentry was a successful farmer and raiser of thoroughbred horses until a few years ago, when he and his brothers sold their farm on Hawkins' branch. Polite and affable, "Jim" Gentry was liked by all who knew him and the news of his death brought sadness to many a heart. Mr. Gentry never professed religion, but was a straight-forward, honorable man who scorned a mean or little deed. After short services at the grave at 1:30 this afternoon all that is mortal of the clever young man will be laid to rest in Buffalo Cemetery. Peace to his ashes.

GOLDEN WEDDING.—Prof. L. D. Sampson, of the Chicago School of Journalism, was on Tuesday's train, returning from Barboursville, where he went to attend the golden wedding of his parents, Joseph and Emeline Sampson. All the family of seven children were at home, one of them, Joseph Jr., coming from South Dakota, where he has lived 20 years, to be present. The friends of Mr. L. D. Sampson, who used to be the I. J.'s correspondent at Barboursville, will be glad to know that he is prospering in the Windy City and making a big reputation for himself.

PINED.—Judge Carson had a big day in his court Tuesday. Whit and John Walls caught fines of $15 and $10 respectively for resisting Marshal Jones when he went to arrest them and Jacob Walls and Will Yocum were fined $8 and $5.50 for imbibing too freely. Babe Hansford, colored, was given a $10 fine for drunkenness. Wesley Delaney, aged 12, was brought here from Kingsville, charged with putting obstructions on the C. S. track, but Judge Bailey was not here and Judge Carson continued the case. The boy placed two big rocks and a can on the track to see the engine knock them off, he said.

WE have the locating engineers of the Southern Railroad with us, but whether or not we will get the road remains to be seen. Messrs. Charles Murry and C. C. Coffey, in charge of a corps of civil engineers stretched their tents at the water works a few days ago and yesterday morning they had gotten as far as J. H. McAllister's with their survey. They are sticking pretty close to the route Capt. Mabel laid out several years ago. It is not expected that these gentlemen will tell all they know about the Southern road and the building of a line to connect its northern and southern system, but it is apparent that they are pleased with the route this way. Our people should extend to the gentlemen every courtesy in their power and make their sojourn in our midst as pleasant as possible. They are deserving of our best treatment.

Dr. Clifton Fowler for Magistrate.

Knowing Dr. Clifton Fowler's fitness for the office of magistrate as I do, I desire as a taxpayer of this magisterial district to ask the voters to consider his claims at the primary to-morrow. In the first place I believe he is one of the very best men in the county, I know that he is a true blue democrat and surely there are none who will deny the fact that he is a successful farmer. As president of various turnpikes he has proven to the people of Lincoln that he is the best roadmaker in the county. When he was made president of the Hanging Fork & Green River pike it was in bad condition financially and otherwise, but the first year of his management it declared a 6 per cent. dividend. Dr. Fowler took charge of the Turnersville, McKinney Station & Coffey's Mill pike when one gate was thrown open, the road-bed being in such a bad fix. In a short time it paid $1,000 on an old debt. James A. Harris, A. K. Denny, R. B. Woods and other such citizens got him to take the presidency of the Knob Lick pike, which he soon made the best in the county, in the meantime spanning Knob Lick and Hanging Fork with iron bridges that cost about $1,800. This pike never failed to declare a dividend of from 5 to 6 per cent. while the doctor had charge. I merely mention this to show that Dr. Fowler is a success at whatever he attempts and to further prove that he is of the kind of timber that we need for magistrate. His name is not printed on the ballots, but we believe enough of his admirers will write his name on the dotted line below the other candidates for magistrate to nominate him by a good majority.

A crowded house in the morning with chairs in the aisle, and an overflowing house at night greeted him the first day he was with us, and all through the meeting, crowded and overflowing houses at night heard him with great delight."

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

Published Tuesdays and Fridays

$1 PER YEAR CASH

When not so paid $2.00 will be charged.

Entered in the post-office at Stanford as second-class matter.

BRODHEAD.

Dr. Percy Benton was summoned to Mt. Sterling on a sad errand, the death of his mother. The doctor has the sympathy of the writer for he knows what it is to give up a mother.

Our postmaster is in Mt. Vernon. A. E. Albright and Wm. Adams, two clever gentlemen have opened a full line of goods at the Collier & Owens stand and Mr. Albright invites his old customers to call and see their new line of goods.

Our postoffice caught fire last week and burned out the cabinet and all with the entire lot of mail. The fire was extinguished before any great damage was done. Mrs. Evans had just bought a new cabinet and put it in the post-office.

Bro. A. J. Pike went to Buckeye last Friday night and returned Tuesday night and reports Mrs. Wm. G. Jones, one of his faithful members, very ill and has been for six or eight weeks. She is convalescing at present. Her many friends will be glad to know she is improving.

Miss Linda Pettus, of Preachersville, is an optic patient of Dr. Burdett, the most noted optician in Kentucky. Mr. J. E. Thompson, late of Livingston, is with Mrs. Thomas Francisco, her sister. Ora Frith, the noted orator of J. G. Frith, entered Lexington Business College Monday.

J. H. Dunn, one of our best citizens and merchants, went to Danville on a business trip and came back by Lancaster. Miss Ella Dunn, who has been behind the counter in the absence of her brother, makes a graceful clerk. Alton Tharpe and wife, of Riley's, are at the bedside of Mrs. G. W. Tharpe. She is very low at this writing. Wm. A. Owens, of the Quail neighborhood, was in town Tuesday and reported Mrs. Martin Owens as being quite sick. She is the mother of Dr. J. H. Watson, of our town. Miss Lee Stone, the beautiful daughter of F. F. Stone, of Lancaster, whom we reported last week as visiting Misses Sallie Purcell and other relatives of our section, returned home Tuesday. Mr. Robert Pike, of Livingston, spent several days with us this week. Misses Amy Pike, Delpha Collier, Bettie Wilmot and Horace Benton came home from school Saturday and returned Sunday. Miss Cora and Master Beaulieu Griffin, of Mt. Vernon, came down with Miss Amy Pike and spent Sunday with her. Miss Berta Martin, one of the teachers in the school at Mt. Vernon, was visiting Miss Sallie Purcell.

The writer was invited to take dinner at Mr. Joshua Dunn's Saturday, it being the 81st birthday of Mr. George T. McRoberts, who was born March 9th, 1820. Bro. McRoberts married a Miss Ellen S. Gaines, a good, christian lady, who was called to leave the good old man in June, 1890. They had born to them five children—three girls and two boys, viz Mrs. Susan E. Dunn, wife of Joshua Dunn, Mrs. Rebecca B. Henderson, wife of James Henderson and Mrs. Bettie Frith, the wife of J. G. Frith. The two boys, B. B. and J. T. McRoberts, are both in Indiana. Mr. McRoberts united with the Christian church in 1860. His wife and children are all members of the same church, and are splendid democrats. Mr. McRoberts has been a subscriber to the INTERIOR JOURNAL from the time that F. J. Campbell issued the first copy, 28 years ago, and has never failed to pay for his paper a single year. It is next to the Bible with him. We can truthfully say we know of no better man as a christian and as a citizen than Mr. McRoberts. So here is hoping that he may live to enjoy many more birthday dinners with his children and many friends, for all who know him love and honor him and if he and the writer live until the 9th of March, 1902, I will make it a point to spend that day with this good old man.

According to a late census bulletin, Kentucky has a land area of 40,000 square miles. The largest counties in the State are Pike, 760 square miles; Christian, 694, and Hardin, 616. Robertson is the smallest, with 96 square miles. Trimble comes next with 132 and Campbell follows with 145. Jefferson has 371 square miles.

SURE CURE FOR GRIP.—We don't know much about the effect of materia medica upon the human system, but we did write, fill and take the following prescription, which knocked the grip higher than Gilderoy's kite: Four quarts of whisky, into which were dissolved four ounces of loaf sugar. To this we added a teaspoonfull of water and another quart of whisky, and then place it over a hot fire and let it boil sufficiently long to boil out all the water. We then stirred in a little more whisky to cool and gulped it down without batting an eye. In order to remove the taste from our mouth we took a little more whisky.—Glenwood Avalanche.

The casual caller came in and remarked to the snake editor:
"You didn't print that poem I sent you."
"Good guess."
"Why didn't you?"
"Well, you said in your letter that if I published it I should hear from you again."—Pittsburg Chronicle.

Father—You heard my daughter sing last night?
Artist—Yes.
"Did you observe the birdlike qualities of her notes?"
"Ah—er—there are so many kinds of birds, don't you know?"—Detroit Free Press.

A striking instance of the ease of money is found in the statement that the First National Bank of Chicago has deposits of over $75,000,000 and the Illinois Trust Company nearly as much.

BLOOD POISON

If you ever contracted any blood disease you are never safe unless the virus or poison has been eradicated from the system. At times you see alarming symptoms, but live in hopes no serious results will follow. Have you any of the following symptoms? Sore Throat, Ulcers on the Tongue or in the Mouth, Hair Falling Out, Aching Pains, Itchiness of the Skin, Sores or Blisters on the Body, Eyes Red and Smart, Dyspeptic Stomach, Sexual Weakness—indications of the second stage. Don't trust to luck. Don't ruin your system with the old foggy treatment, mercury and potash—which only suppresses the symptoms for a time, only to break out again, when happy in domestic life. Don't let quacks experiment on you. Our New Method Treatment is guaranteed to cure you. Our guarantees are backed by bank bonds, that the disease will never return. Thousands of patients have been already cured by our New Method Treatment for over twenty years. No experiment, no risk—not a "patch-up," but a positive cure. The worst cases solicited. We treat and cure Nervous Debility, Sexual Weakness, Gleet, Blood Poison, Stricture, Varicocele, Kidney and Bladder Diseases, and all diseases peculiar to men and women.
